

Write an Ekphrastic Poem!

2006.009 | Aminah Robinson | GUTHRIE, THE COAL MINER | mixed media (watercolor,, pencil, gesso, marker) on heavy paper | 11.5 x 16 | 1982

Aminah Robinson's work is grounded in her belief in the African concept of Sankofa, learning from the past in order to move forward.

Much of her work is about family, community, and the stories told to her by her elders. She also researched the lives of abolitionists, civil rights leaders, musicians and writers and depicts them in her art.

ART IDEAS

- Ask Visitor Services for the packet of postit notes and pencil.
- Write an ekphrastic poem using Guthrie, The Coal Miner as inspiration. (An ekphrastic poetry is a vivid description of a scene or, more commonly, a work of art. You can invent dialog, create a story, ask questions, or reflect on what details in the painting mean or, you can relate the painting

COME
FIND →
ART

Springfield Museum of Art

A Smithsonian Affiliate

Admission

$5 Adults | FREE for Members,
17 and under, and EBT card-
holders with Museums for All

Museum Hours

Wednesday-Saturday, 9am-5pm
Sunday 12:30pm-4:30pm
Closed Monday & Tuesday

107 Cliff Park Road | Springfield, Ohio 45504
937.325.4673 | springfieldart.net

Morris Howard | BLUE HAT | Oil on canvas | 18" x 24" | 2023